Story

The Probotector is a fighting robot that was developed in top secret by a special scientific mechanized unit.

It is the year 2636. Once again the aliens who lost in battle to the Probotector have regained their full strength and have begun a large-scale invasion. Humans are mere rag dolls in the face of the aliens' overwhelming resources, scientific capability and powerful life force.

Six months later, two fighting robots appear in the devastated city controlled by the aliens, RDOO8 and RCO11 the strongest Probotectors in history.

How to Play

You must destroy the Aliens' main base and rescue the Earth from the destructive hand of the invaders !!

- This game is composed of 6 stages divided into side-view and top-view stages.
- In the side-view stages, you must evade the enemy attacks, proceed to the end of the stage and defeat the boss enemy to clear the stage.
- In the top-view stages, you select a spot within a fixed field to drop down in and within that field you can move about freely. After destroying targets set up in various locations, you will go to the boss screen. If you defeat the boss enemy, you will clear the stage.
- If the player gets hit by an enemy or a bullet, or falls into a ravine or the like, "1 OUT" results. When all the players are out, the game is over.
- Even when GAME OVER is reached, if CONTINUE is selected, you can begin again from the stage at which you left off. At the CONTINUE screen, you can change settings for 1 PLAYER, 2 PLAYERS A, or 2 PLAYERS B.
- For 2P play, even if one player is completely out, he or she can receive a player if there are any left from the other player and continue to play.
(Receive using A button.)

- As the player destroys enemies his or her score increases. IUP is received for the first 20,000 points, and thereafter for every 60,000 points up to 30 player units.
- The player holds one gun in each hand, and depending upon the situation can fire either one.
- If the items that appear in the game are picked up, the gun in use will increase in power. But if the players becomes out, the gun returns to normal. If during random shooting the player becomes out, both guns return to normal.
